Name of the Program: Tree Plantation Drive by NSS Volunteers

Date: 3rd and 21st September 2024

Venue: College Campus, Government Degree College, Ravulapalem

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit

Brief Report: On 3rd and 21st September 2024, the NSS unit of Government Degree College, Ravulapalem, organized a tree plantation drive on the college campus. This initiative was part of the NSS Day celebrations and aimed at promoting environmental awareness and contributing to a greener campus. The primary objective of the tree plantation drive was to encourage students to actively participate in environmental conservation efforts and to highlight the importance of trees in sustaining ecological balance and mitigating climate change.

Participants:

NSS Volunteers: 50 students from various departments participated enthusiastically in the event.

Faculty: Several faculty members, including NSS Programme Officer and staff, supported and guided the volunteers throughout the event.

Principal: The Principal, Dr. V. Srinivasa Rao, inaugurated the tree plantation drive and motivated the students by emphasizing the importance of protecting the environment.

Event Highlights:

The tree plantation drive began at 9:00 AM, with the Principal and faculty members planting the first sapling. NSS volunteers planted over 100 saplings, including native species such as neem, mango, and guava, across various areas of the college campus. The volunteers were divided into teams, each assigned a specific area for planting, ensuring systematic coverage of the entire campus. Proper care was taken to prepare the soil and place protective guards around the saplings to ensure their growth. Faculty members guided the students on the techniques of planting, watering, and maintaining the saplings. As part of the event, a short talk was delivered by the NSS Programme Officer, highlighting the role of youth in combating environmental degradation. The importance of regular care and nurturing of the planted saplings was stressed.

Outcome:

The tree plantation drive was successful in planting 100 saplings, creating a greener; more aesthetically pleasing environment on the campus. The event fostered a sense of responsibility among the students toward environmental conservation. The NSS volunteers pledged to regularly water and maintain the saplings, ensuring their healthy growth.
